Mark Inman needs our help; make donations to Frontier!!

Past Grand Master Carson and Judy Inman's son Mark was in a serious accident on August 19, 2007. He was east of Port Gamble. It was raining and his pickup went off the road. He was not found for about seven hours. When found, he was laying in water and in the rain. They could not fly Mark out because of the bad weather, so he was taken to Bremerton for diagnoses before he was sent to Harbor View Medical Center in Seattle.

He had a bruised brain and lung. His hip and pelvis, right hand and left foot were broken, plus he suffered from severe hyperthermia. He spent nine days in ICU and the trauma care unit. After surgery on August 23, when two pins in the foot and four in the hip were installed, Mark is now in a wheelchair and will be for six to eight weeks.

The company he works for, Reijnen Construction, has set up an account for him at Frontier Bank of Washington to help with all the expenses as he had no insurance. He has bills to pay and could really use the help of our Brothers and Sisters. You can make donations at Frontier Bank branches in his name.

Carson and Judy are now taking care of him and his son at their home. They are taking his son to school every morning as he is a sophomore in high school. He started school on September 5 and they didn't want him to change schools. That is what we do for family.

General Jack L. Reasoner, General Commanding, poses with the 3-wheel trike that will be given away following the Tournament of Roses Parade.

You can win a $30,000 trike and help I.O.O.F. charities!

"Special Delivery" is the name of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah Float which will be featured in January 1's Tournament of Roses Parade. The float depicts a bear driving a 3-wheeled motorcycle. With this in mind, float organizers are raffling off a 3-wheel motorcycle worth approximately $30,000. Second prize is a 12-day cruise for two. Together, the prizes are worth $38,000.

Organizers are selling 3,000 raffle tickets at $25 each. The 3-wheeled trike is called the "Pit Boss." Proceeds from the raffle will benefit the Children's Home, IOOF SOS Village, the Arthritis Foundation, Education Foundation, Hunger and Disaster Relief, Visual Research Foundation, the Heart Fund, UN Pilgrimage, IOOF Rose Float and the SGL/IARA Joint Youth Committee.

To purchase tickets, contact Float Chairman Robert Gennaria at (310) 486-6249 or by e-mail at: robertgennaria@verizon.net

East / West Picnic was a great event in 2007!

At our annual East/West Picnic at Lake Easton State Park, the weather was good, we were able to use the grills and have a campfire. Attendance was much better than last year, with people from both the east and the west — both members and guests. Friendship and fun was enjoyed by all.

We did one of the things we do best — partaking of a delicious pot luck lunch. A short meeting was held at which Carson Inman was elected President for next year (in absentia), and it was decided to continue with the East/West Picnic. The next one will be held on the second Sunday in September, 2008, which is the 14. It is hoped that even more will join in the good times at this social event.

LET'S PRACTICE FRIENDSHIP, LOVE & TRUTH

As I prepared to write this article I reviewed some others submitted in previous Octobers. There were the usual reminders to nominate officers for November elections, as well as announcements for events and visitations. A pattern emerged in the headlines "Together We Can Succeed," "Let's Work in Harmony" and "Let's Agree to Disagree" encouragement to not allow our differences to derail the work of the Order. These letters addressed overcoming dissension and working together and these same issues still haunt us today. Any organization like ours is faced with internal tensions and divisions created when dedicated individuals work toward a common goal with differing visions.

I asked myself what could I say that would encourage my/our Brothers and Sisters to share their differences of opinion, to enter into discussion, even debate, and yet do so in the spirit of Friendship, Love and Truth. If you don't share these three values then you are simply wasting your time and efforts and those of all of the Sisters and Brothers around you. If you have an ax to grind or a point to make and you don't do it in Friendship, Love and Truth, then I would remind you of Corinthians 1:1 where it says:

"If I could speak in any language in the world but don't have Love, (Friendship and Truth) then when I speak I will be making meaningless noise, just like a noisy gong or clanging cymbal."

How we approach our difficulties and differences and work them out defines us as individuals and as an organization. When we choose to work within our Laws and be guided by our principles of Friendship, Love and Truth, then our differences and diversity become strengths and we can truly work to improve and elevate the character of mankind.

If we allow our differences to define us we will continue to divide our Order until there is nothing left.

Question your own actions and motivations. Are you striving to elevate your character and improve our society or are you undermining the Order by ignoring or neglecting our principles? We can build a better Order and a better World if we each look to our own hearts and ensure that our words and actions are firmly based in Friendship, Love and Truth. It won't always be easy, but it is most important when it is hardest.

In F., L. & T., John Crispin, Grand Master

2007 SGL SESSIONS

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

We are back from the Sovereign Grand Lodge sessions of 2007 held in Denver, CO. The good news is that there will not be any changes to the Odd Fellow Ritual again this year.

Membership is the paramount issue that needs to be addressed at all levels of our Order starting with the grass roots in our lodges. We must build and renew from this level. Growth is not going to come from the top down. Please seek out all helpful recruiting information that you can lay our hands on and employ it, as well as any assistance Frank Wilson, your DGM, may be able to share with you as result of the training session he attended this past April.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the units in this Jurisdiction that received Certificates of Award from Sovereign Grand Lodge this year for your participation and gains in the several programs of the order.

UNITED NATIONS PILGRIMAGE

Participation in the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Tour was down some from the previous year here in the Jurisdiction of Washington. We sent five students. To those lodges and districts that may be considering sending a student or students in the coming year, please contact Mary Dunivan, the UNP Chairman for the Jurisdiction of Washington, for the current costs and deadlines that have to be met. You may call Mary at (360) 295-3681 or e-mail her at B2yellow@aol.com. Her mailing address is 240 Dunivan Road, Vader, WA 98593.

L.J. JONES SCHOLARSHIPS

The annual mailings from this committee have been sent with the forms for making nominations of members and relatives for the various scholarships that are available. The nominating deadline for all scholarships from the lodges is December 31, 2007. To all lodges, please consider the L.J. Jones Scholarship Fund as a possible donation from the lodge. The current draw down on this fund is $22,000 per year for all of the scholarships awarded annually.

ANNUAL REPORTS

We plan to mail out the Annual Report forms package this month. If you are an officer with a part to complete, please start now gathering and compiling the necessary information needed for this report. When the report forms are received, do not alter the "Cash on Hand Last Report" amount appearing on Line 1. Please complete them accurately and submit them timely. (Reference: Washington Digest Chapter 3, Sec. 3.20.4 found on page 55.) Last year one-third of our lodges had not filed by February 1 and eight lodges missed the February 15 deadline making the lodge liable for the $5 per day fine. Note, a Resolution was presented and passed at the Grand Lodge Session of 2007 exempting the Grand Secretary from assessing and collecting the appropriate fines from these eight lodges for Annual Reporting Year 2006. If there is anything confusing or you are in doubt as to how to complete your forms, please call the Grand Lodge office (1-800-345-1766) for assistance.

NOMINATIONS

It is hard to believe that it is that time of year already. October is the month for nominations of your elective officers for next year. Refer to the Washington Digest, Chapter 3, Section 3.10.1 Elective Officers and Section 3.10.3 Nominations, found on pages 42 and 43 for guidance.

Fraternally,

Edmond L. "Butch" Reitan Jr., PGM, Grand Secretary

CAN CHRISTMAS BE JUST AROUND THE CORNER?

Dear Sisters and Brothers:

October — can you believe summer has come and gone? I was in a store today and saw Christmas decorations!!! Guess I can't complain. I, with our daughter, have one gift made already.

I hope your year has gone well so far with you, your family and your friends. I would like to thank all of you who have sent cards or inquired about George's (my husband) health. He is much better now and he and I have appreciated your friendship and kindness.

For you who have children or grandchildren planning on, (going to or in), college, I would remind you there is a deadline on applying for the L.J. Jones Scholarship. Forms can be requested from Grand Lodge.

I have had occasion over the past few years to pick up some Lodge Charters. This is sad for me and for the lodge members who have worked so hard over the years. When a Charter is surrendered there are certain steps which have to be followed. For the current operating lodges, there are some items I would urge you to follow at all times:

• 1 — Keep an accurate and up-to-date record of your members. This includes their current address and their dues payment record. I have found that when I receive the membership list, many of the listed members have passed away or are no longer members. This means the newspaper is being sent where it does not belong. This makes the paper costs go up and is reflected in your billing, plus you are paying per capita for people who are not paying dues. Notify the Grand Lodge Office when someone is dropped, passes away or moves. It also means these members cannot be accepted into State Lodge and must be dropped from the Order.

• 2 — Keep your financial statements current. Observe the rules of the Order and, if surrendering your Charter, do not try to "get rid of your funds." When this is done it is your Sisters who suffer, not the Assembly, as they must further assume the burden of the expenses. Remember, the officers of the lodge are responsible to see that this is not done.

• 3 — Hopefully this will not happen to you, but if it comes to the question of surrendering your Charter ask the Assembly Secretary for the paper work which must be done. Follow the directions carefully, especially as far as signatures and seal are concerned. This is very important.

Received by e-mail and it is so true: "Blessed are those who can give without remembering and take without forgetting." Stop by anytime and have a cup of coffee with me or a cup of tea with George. You are always welcome.

This goes out before we've had our first fall meeting, so news might be slim.

Lots has been going on this summer. Minnie Epling had major surgery and is recuperating slowly.

Sisters Beulah Crocker and Marian Moon have really been butterflies, taking trips and really enjoying themselves.

Jerry Bierdeman is having a few health problems, but she is doing much better now. Her friend Larry is being treated for cancer.

Luellyn Ainsworth was taken to an annual picnic in Seattle. The rest of the summer she enjoyed her flowers and stayed home.

Carolyn Turner was busy all summer with special trips to Idaho, Eastern Washington and now to the eastern states for another reunion. She has been sharing lots of fresh garden produce with seniors and other people in Pe Ell.

Louise Lusk attended her oldest son Leslie Lusk's retirement party. He worked 37 years in the shipyard.

Cora Walker attended a family reunion in Ocean Shores.

The recipient of our Pe Ell scholarship award was graduating senior Tiffany Boerste.

DISTRICT MEETING MONTH IS HERE

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Our summer has come and gone. The days are getting shorter, schools have started, vacations are over and our Rebekah Lodges are busy planning activities for the rest of the year.

October is the time for Fall District Meetings for most lodges. I hope that those lodges holding District Meetings in the fall, and also in the spring, continue to do so. I have found that once you decided to hold only one District Meeting a year, you eventually don't hold any at all. District Meetings are not a sanctioned meeting and they can be whatever you want them to be.

Back in the good old days, lodges held Friendship Nights, joint meetings and other get-togethers throughout the year. It seems that those events are no longer held because of the problem of fewer members driving, etc. The meetings between lodges in your district and nearby areas have ended up being only once a year. I feel these meetings are not only a learning venue, but they are also a great way to share ideas that will keep this great Order going strong. The more ideas you have available to your lodge, the better you will become. I hope every district has a great day at your several meetings. Keep up the good work.

The DDPs should have made their reports to the lodges in your districts and shared the events of our Session in Kelso.

With fall upon us, District Meetings to attend, visitations to make, my own lodge meetings to attend, it seems that I am getting even busier than before. I will be made numerous visitations in September and my tentative schedule for my official visitations in October is as follows:

- October 1 — Kapowsin Rebekah Lodge #241, Elk Plain Grange
- October 2 — Mystic Rebekah Lodge #158, Bremerton
- October 3 — District Association #26 Meeting, Orting
- October 4 — South Tacoma Rebekah Lodge #160, Tacoma
- October 6 — District #18 Meeting, Napavine
- October 8 — Fern Rebekah Lodge #26, Montesano
- October 9 — Mizpah Rebekah Lodge #11 and Celesta Rebekah Lodge #333 joint meeting in Port Townsend
- October 10 — Mt. View Rebekah Lodge #34, noon, Port Angeles
- October 10 — Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17, 7:30 p.m., Olympia
- October 13 — District #10 Meeting, Oak Harbor
- October 16-18 — Idaho Sessions, Boise
- October 23 — Gilman Rebekah Lodge #59 and Lone Star Rebekah Lodge #141, Fall City

There may be other visitations during the weeks ahead before winter sets in, but all will depend on the elements of Mother Nature.

In Friendship, Love and Truth,
Marcia Presley, President, Rebekah Assembly of Washington

Columbian Rebekah Lodge #220 and Washougal IOOF Lodge #194

Hello again everyone. This is fall and we must get ready for a full steam ahead to get warmed up for lodge each month. We had our first meeting on September 11. There was much talk of our summer events and travels before the meeting started. We all had a good summer.

October will be filled with anticipation of what to do in getting members interested in activities for each meeting. We are so few here and we just don't know what to do!!!

It would be nice to have a dress-up for Halloween at one meeting and just have a fun night with treats and a contest for the best costume. It was brought up at our meeting in September, so we will have to go for it and see what happens. It is better than getting caught up in a web or getting stuck in the mud trying to get away from all the goblins in town. Boo everyone!!

*Harvest time has come again,
The fall leaves are falling,
The trees will soon be bare,
Of their coat of leaves,
The Winter cold is near,
And will stand there
with leafless form,
Silent and remote.
Only sleeping —waiting for spring,
To reappear,
Singing birds will return with a song
In their hearts of Love that God has Given them to spread like seeds
My friends the harvest is here,
So go out and spread the word,
That God loves us like every
Fallen leaf and so does your lodge
Members; let them know!!!
Join us for a meeting
And enjoy the harvest of friends
You will meet.
Until next time. . .

LEA DANIELS

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

I can't wait for October 31. Halloween is one of my favorite holidays. I hope that everyone has a great night of trick-o-treating and a safe one, as well.

As President of the Theta Rho Assembly of Washington, I have been keeping very busy. My reception went great. Thank you to all of you who came. Your support is very much appreciated. The retreat that followed was amazing. For those who attended the retreat, I hope you had just as much fun as I did.

I'm also looking forward to attending the institution of the newest Theta Rho Club in Oregon. I am waiting with great excitement to meet the new girls. I know that they will be great young ladies.

As for what is to come: I will start making my visitations within the next few months and actively participating in my club, Spunky Bluebirds #93. If your club needs help with anything, I am here not only as your President, but as a friend who is here whenever you need me.

Keep up the good work with your community service projects and finding new members. We need to get our numbers up, so don't give up.

"Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. Nothing can be done without hope and confidence."

Happy fall, y'all! We love this time of year. Everything so colorful and beautiful.

Last month we forgot to mention that our club received two very special honors at Sessions in June. We received a plaque from the Arthritis Foundation for donating the most money to their cause and the Membership Award for the most new members. Although we were very honored to receive these, this is not the reason we do what we do. It's not about getting the award, its about the service we perform. Our motto is "Happiness Through Service" and it makes us happy to help such worthy causes and to see our club grow. Speaking of growing, we are going to be initiating some new members, so we are still growing and growing!

At this time we would also like to publicly give a great big thank you to a very special Rebekah Sister, Genevieve Halstead. For the last few years she has donated her per diem check from Sessions to our club. That means a lot to us and shows us how special this lady is to our Order. We thank her kindly for this donation to help our club financially.

This month we are busy doing our community service projects. We are planning to do the Hunger Walk on October 7 in Tacoma. We have done this walk before. So that means we will be asking for sponsors again, so please give generously. The proceeds from this walk go to Northwest Harvest which gives money and food to all the food banks in our area.

Thank you again to everyone in the Order who always gives so generously of your time, efforts and friendship to us. And remember, Theta Rho is the place to go!

Oak Leaf Rebekah Lodge #254 in Oak harbor will be hosting the fall meeting of Rebekah Association #10 on October 13 in our hall on Southeast Barrington in Oak Harbor. Well fall is officially here and we are back in the swing of things. At our first meeting in September we initiated two new members. We welcome Savannah Lomeli and Emily Brown to our club.

Allison Stewart and Amanda Fry helped the local Lions Club hand out flyers asking for school supplies for needy children. This photo should have appeared last month, but because of a computer glitch, another photo was inserted.

We hope all of you are enjoying being back with your Sisters and Brothers. Until next month, don't let the goblins get you.

In Happiness Through Service, The members of Acorn #79

Also that night, our Advisor surprised us with presenting to us the Irene Meigs Community Service Award that we had been given at SGL Youth Days in Denver. We are very proud to bring this honor to the Jurisdiction of Washington. After the meeting we had a little celebration with refreshments provided by our Advisor.

In September we also had a swim party and several of our members attended the Reception for Theta Rho Assembly President Lea Daniels and the overnight retreat.

This month we will be making the name tags and nutcups for the meeting of Rebekah Association #10 which will be held in Oak Harbor.

We also will be doing the seating of the Association Officers.

Later in the month we will have our Halloween Party with our scavenger hunt to collect food for the local food bank. We always have fun doing this.

Bluebirds hang the banner

Members of the Spunky Bluebirds Theta Rho Club and their advisors gathered around newly-elected Assembly President Lea Daniels. They are holding the President's Banner which the Spunky Bluebirds get to keep for another year.

Fern Rebekahs #26 - Montesano

The family of Sylvia Trissel would like to thank everyone who has sent "get-well" or "thinking-of-you" cards to her. Sylvia has been a longtime member of Fern Rebekah Lodge, but is now unable to attend meetings because of a number of broken bones — even her neck. She has dealt with breast cancer and just recently had her other breast removed. She is now recuperating at home.

Her family has no idea who is sending her cards as they are all signed, "Your Rebekah Friend."

Sylvia also had a stroke and is unable to speak. Her family said she so enjoys the cards. If you would like to send her a card, her address is: Sylvia Trissel, 246 Geissler Rd., Montesano, WA 98563.

Her family wanted me to do this for them. Thank you so much.

Well it's time for things to get back into the routine of meetings and planning for bazaars and all that goes with fall.

We are thinking about ways to get our projects going. We served the lunch for our District Meeting. Sandy Moon will preside over our District Association #2 Meeting on October 6. We are hoping for a very nice turnout. Our President next year is Katherine Thompson from Hillyard

Lodge #145

In June we took in two new members, our own Mark Quarieo and Blanche Marie Kintyle. We are putting them both to work on the District Meeting as well as other projects.

Hopefully we will have more news for next month. As for now, enjoy the nice weather and have a great fall.

FALL IS HERE

Hello Ladies. As this is my first letter to all of you I hope this finds you all doing well after a very long and hot summer. It's that time when we are back to our regular meetings and helping our Brothers and Sisters in the other branches.

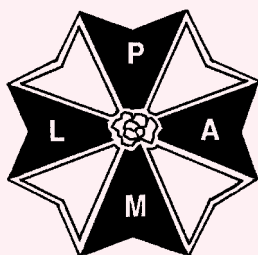

As you know by now, my project for this year is the VanderLinden Fund with the Visual Aid Committee. I would like everyone to please take heed of anyone who you might know who could use help getting their eyes checked. Please let the committee know so if they can assist this person in getting help. I will be contacting your Unit with ideas of raising monies to help with the funding for this soon.

Ladies, please make it your project to try to get at least one new member as it is very important that we try to enlarge our units or we will find ourselves without units to do our work.

Since this will be in your October newspaper, I encourage all of you who possibly can to come to our Regimental Meeting in Olympia on November 2 so that we can keep our Regiment and be able to do what is necessary as a group to help our order.

As I said, this my first letter to all of you and I will try to keep you up on what is happening with our Regiment and with my dates for visitations.

Last month it was noted that our long-time Sister Mary Lou Bostrup, had to give up her apartment following a fall and go into the Home's care facilities. But right after the news article was submitted to The Washington OddFellow, Mary Lou passed away. Lillian Davis received a call from Brother Art Schreiber to let her and Ramona members know. Art just lost his Mary Lou several months ago.

August has been a slow lodge month. Members have had children, grandchildren and even great-grandchildren coming and going all summer.

The biggest affairs on the horizon are the District # 2 Meeting on October 6 and the reception for Sister Blanche Berry (Beacon #91) the President of the Department Association of LAPM Washington Regiment.

Wilford and Samaritan members have joined the District #2 Sisters (Beacon, Hillyard and Ramona) to help the LAPM entertain our state visitors.

It is hoped Polly and Al Komarek will have time in their busy schedules to provide some good "ole strumming" music. Of course, you are all invited to the reception 1 p.m. on Saturday, October 20 in the Spokane Temple celebrating this "local girl makes good" event.

Our members are now busy working on items and collecting articles for our tables at the bazaar being held at the Grandview Senior Center. The date hasn't been set, but we have volunteered to help the center in anyway that we can.

One of our members and her daughter, who is a member of Golden Rule Rebekahs, have been busy this summer crocheting "Care Bears" and collecting items for the Crisis Center in Sunnyside.

Our lodge has also made a financial donation to the U.S. Troops Care Packages. We must support our troops and veterans in any way that we can.

Trinity Rebekahs #179 - Napavine

It's hard to believe fall is here and the leaves are turning pretty colors.

We had a gala event that took place at our lodge. It was a birthday bash for Marilyn Williams on Friday evening, August 24. The party featured a Coca Cola setting. There was music for dancing from old-fashioned record albums. What fun! It was a time to kick up our heels. We had a board of pictures showing Marilyn in her growing up years, including her 1950 senior class picture from Napavine High School. Interesting!

Our rummage sale went off very well on September 6-8. Many people came in looking for bargains and we had the stuff to look through.

Our Rebekah picnic was held at the home of Candy Koons on September 8. There was plenty of food. We had time to visit and catch up on what we did over the summer. Our NG Debbie Lee said it was an enjoyable afternoon.

Some of our Sisters were planning to attend an initiation in Longview on September 15. I wish we could all be taking in new members.

Our first meeting for the fall was on September 13. We are all ready to roll again.

Olympia IOOF Lodge #1 Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17

The highlight of our lodge's activities was our annual Seafood Dinner Extravaganza. The event, as always, occurred at our beautiful Puget Beach Park. The menu included clams, crabs and oysters. The main course was salmon furnished by our Herb Turner. The food was top notch. The Rebekahs furnished salads and pies and they were absolutely wonderful — thanks a bunch. We would be remiss in not thanking our cooks, support staff and their spouses who bought this together. This is a long planning process requiring preparation, cooking, coordination and devotion. Our lodge applauds all you hard workers: Tom, Bob, Joe, Don and Rick. If I have forgotten someone, please know who you certainly appreciated.

Thanks too to the Park Board for their efforts in sprucing up the park — it looked super. Special thanks to Walt and Glenn for their part. It takes several hours to trim and mow the park.

The Noble Grand reminded the lodge that the "Odd Fellow of the Year Award" needs your nominations. The individual selected will receive the coveted Merit Jewel. You may recall Tom Day was the first to receive it last year. Please give your written recommendations to the Vice Grand or Chaplain. The award will be presented at our installation in January.

PJ thanked all the volunteers who helped paint, wash and beautify the cemetery office. It looks brand new. Plans are in the works to do some tree clearing and subsequent roof work on the equipment garage — so stay tuned.

Several members assisted the "Little Red School House" project. This is a project that gives needy families school supplies, clothing, shoes and underwear. The lodge volunteers assisted in setting up and breaking down the equipment used in displaying clothing and school supplies. This is a worthwhile project and a great community service.

The Odd Fellow and Rebekah food program for feeding children of needy families has been more than successful. We provided groceries for 28 families representing 63 children from eight different local schools. We had a few more families added after they had read the article in the Daily Olympian about our lodge providing food. The dollar amount we had spent at Wal-Mart was approximately $3,000, much of which was donated from more than 14 different businesses and individuals. Thirty to 35 IOOF and Rebekah members participated in this noble endeavor. A very strong hats off to Rick and Kathy Garcia for setting up this program. I do not know the hours spent on this project, but it was huge. Thanks to all who worked on this important community work. This is what Odd Fellowship is all about.

It has finally happened. A new kitchen floor! Dan, George, Jim, Leonard, PJ and Stu ripped up the old floor, laid cement board, and Dan laid out the new non-slip tile floor. The new tile has made a marked difference in the kitchen. The next project will be to repaint the cabinets and trim. This project will take a number of volunteers to accomplish. Come to lodge and see the new floor and volunteer your paint brush. Our NG and George Johnson, along with Dan Lerech, have spearheaded this project.

Think about nominations for our lodge officers and board members for year 2008. Nominations will be here in about a month.

Pictured are NG Tony Ostlund, Steve Schmidt, Elizabeth Morgan and Loletta McCormick with Laverne Harris and some of her students. The mission statement of Friendly Horse Acres is, "Horses and humans healing each other physically, emotionally and spiritually." Many children are helped through this program. Others at the party were Noble Grand James Eddie and his wife Mickey, along with their son Brian and his son Andrew; Tom and Barbara Shay; and Rich and Myrtle Oestreich. Everyone had a good time.

NG James Eddie announced that Centennial IOOF Lodge is planning a membership drive to be held during the month of October.

Oak Leaf Rebekahs #254 - Oak Harbor

It is the beginning of fall and we are happy to be back at our lodge meetings. We had several members sick the night of our first meeting, but we had the pleasant surprise of having Sister Betty Haines with us. She has not been at meeting for awhile. Those of us who were there enjoyed all the great food at the pot luck and the fellowship.

We are planning another garage sale at our hall on October 6. To any members who have things to donate, please price them and bring them to the hall by October 5.

The next weekend we will be the hostess for the Rebekah Association #10 Meeting. We hope to have a good turn out of Brothers and Sisters, so if you can, please join us. Lunch is served at 11 a.m. and the meeting starts at noon.

Stacey McCloskey finished her bootcamp and is now at school in Mississippi. We are very proud of her and her decision to serve her country.

Hopefully everyone who was sick is on the mend and will return to our next meeting. We missed all of you and need each and everyone of you.

Narcissa Rebekah Lodge #2

Eighteen members of Narcissa Rebekah Lodge #2 gathered on Tuesday, September 4 to kick off the fall season of lodge activities. NG Jane Hanson welcomed all of us at the meeting which followed a time of fellowship during a delicious salad and dessert potluck meal that was hosted by Barbara Lechner and Rose Ringhoffer.

We heard reports of those who have been ill or passed away and, also the good news of others who have recuperated and are active again. Phyllis Flanagan is temporarily living at the Odd Fellows Home as she recuperates from her broken leg. It was great to have Arline Maxson present at our meeting after a long absence following her heart surgery. We were all saddened to learn of the sudden death of Sister Elsie Wells' son Jim earlier in the summer.

The Odd Fellows Home sent notes of appreciation for our recent donations to the Sunshine Conveyance Fund and the Odd Fellows Endowment in memory of Sister Mary Loue Schreiber. Thank you notes were read from Charlotte Hanifen, our newly adopted Sister, who is the recipient of quarterly gift certificates from our Lodge; Linda Hardy, of the Walla Walla Community College Foundation, who thanked us for providing an annual scholarship; Tracey Tiffin, recipient of the second year nursing scholarship at the Community College; Elsie Wells for the remembrances of her son; and our local Pantry Shelf for donating a grand total of 138 pounds of supplies during the months of April, May and June — 61 pounds of baby items, 50 pounds of baking supplies and 27 pounds of hygiene items for men.

Our Representative Elsie Wells gave a comprehensive report on Rebekah Assembly and presented our lodge with several awards that were received at Sessions. Those awards were "Living Legacy," "Community Service," "Higher Education," "Arthritis" and the "Perfect Annual Report Appreciation Award."

We received an invitation, from the children of Marthann Hall to attend a birthday party in her honor on Saturday, September 15. The party also was originally planned, to honor the birthday of Marthann's long-time neighbor and Narcissa member, Phyllis Flanagan. It is hoped that Phyllis will be recuperated enough from her broken leg to be present at the party.

Beth Entze read condolences in memory of Elsie Dettling and Elaine Clow who passed away recently. Elsie was a 72-year member and Elaine had belonged to the lodge for 57 years. Condolence reports were accepted.

We were all pleased to finally learn who had cleaned up the landscaped area outside our lodge hall by pulling the weeds that had sprung up during the summer months. A big thanks to our Sister Donna Kennedy for her surprise gift and volunteer act of service.

Monterose Rebekahs #46 - Toledo

Our first meeting for the fall was held September 6 in Toledo. NG Rosalie Davis gave her Assembly report. It was an interesting review for those who could not attend.

With a heavy heart, a memorial service was held at this time for three Sisters we lost over the summer — Mable Hayrynen, Fannie Blair and VG Noma Clark. Oh, how we miss them all. It is hard to believe they are gone, but God has called them home.

DDP Rosalie Davis and Genie Young traveled to Onalaska's Pine Burr Lodge for an official visit on September 4. They had a very pleasant time.

Cookie Music also reported that she had a good visit with Betty Allen over the summer at Cook's Hill Manor. She also ran into Jim and Dora Cline at the Egg Day Parade in June. It was good to see them out.

At our first fall meeting, members enjoyed a bring-your-own sack lunch while Rosalie provided Dixie Cup ice cream for dessert. The members then adjourned.

Ocean Beach Rebekah Lodge #313

Members of Ocean Beach Rebekah Lodge were honored to be chosen to submit two postcards to be used on the Tournament of Roses Odd Fellow/Rebekah Float. With the theme "Passport to World Celebrations," the Sisters chose to send postcards using the Washington State International Kite Festival and Cape Disappointment Coast Guard. Be sure to watch the Rose Parade on January 1, 2008.

Ten sisters volunteer for the kite festival and put in around 1,500 hours for the month of August, plus one Sister works year around on the festival committee.

Our community planter downtown at the Long Beach Arch drew many compliments during the summer. Thank you Sisters who helped. Olney Patch and Cathy Kary kept it watered and blooming.

Plans are underway for our Friendship Night on October 16. We will use a Halloween theme. Come in costume if you visit.

Nominations of officers will be held our first meeting in October. We hope to see you here. May God bless you. Have a happy fall.
