Top honor for Washington

Thanks to all the lodges in our state, the Jurisdiction of Washington was awarded first place for the Visual Aid Program at the Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions in Kansas City, MO last August. This award is given to the Jurisdiction donating the most money to the national program. At right, Grand Master Harry Coulter receives the plaque from Wes Nelson, Chairman of the Visual Research Foundation.

East-West Picnic

There was fun for a few

The weather was good, but attendance was again down for the East-West Picnic this year at Lake Easton State Park on Sunday, September 12. There were five from the west and two from the east.

After visiting, a delicious lunch was consumed. Then a short informal meeting was held during which the officers were re-elected. It was decided to again hold the picnic next year at the same time, the second Sunday in September. It will, however, be at the IOOF park on Camano island. This will give people a chance to see the park, and the improvements, and show support for the park.

Project Caity

Spunky Bluebirds are raising funds for a Theta Rho Sister!

To the officers, members, friends, and families of our Order:

We, the girls of Spunky Bluebirds Theta Rho Club #93, wish to enlist help for one of our members. Caity is 13-years-old and has pancreatic cancer. She was first diagnosed at the age of 8 and in order to receive chemo treatments is home-schooled. She joined our club last spring and loves the social outlet. She enjoys being a part of club activities, including attending Theta Rho Assembly. When she is playing around with the other girls, she can forget for awhile, her serious illness.

While we know we cannot do anything to make Caity better, we want to at least do something to help her and her family. In a very personal and real way, we feel called to hold up our Order's directive to relieve the distressed. So with the permission of our Grand Master and Rebekah President, we have launched Project Caity.

Project Caity is a call to action. We are asking for your support in raising funds for Caity's family. That support can come in the form of attending and/or donating to an event we are planning (details below) or by holding your own fund-raising event or project. By rallying around this family in their time of need, we hope to ease their burden a little and live up to our Theta Rho motto, "In Happiness Through Service."

Please join us for Project Caity's Spaghetti Dinner and Auction on Saturday, November 20 from 1 to 5 p.m. in the South Tacoma Odd Fellows Hall, 5424 S. Puget Sound in Tacoma. Dinner tickets are $10.

For more details or if you wish to donate an auction item or make a monetary donation, please contact Advisor Sylvia Summers at (253) 474-3509 or e-mail her at: summers@seanet.com. You also may contact Assistant Advisor Laurel Delony at (253) 606-7620, e-mail lddelony@comcast.net.

Past Sovereign Grand Master 'Tiny' Shelvey dies August 30

Past Sovereign Grand Master Lloyd (Tiny) Shelvey died peacefully at his home in Grandview, Manitoba, Canada on August 30. He had just returned from the Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions in Kansas City, MO.

In 1992 he was elected as Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, a position he held until his death. Lloyd joined Rapid City Odd Fellows Lodge #18 in 1975 and within the next year Lloyd became a member of Deborah Rebekah Lodge #9, Lebanon Encampment #7 and Manitoba Canton #2. He was instrumental in the formation of Valleyview Junior Lodge #2 and was very involved in providing leadership. Lloyd moved quickly through the offices of his own lodge and Encampment, and became Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba in 1987. In 1983 he was appointed to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Youth Committee and served a number of years as chairman of that committee. He was elected Warden of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1990, Deputy Sovereign Grand Master in 1991 and was installed as Sovereign Grand Master in Atlanta, Georgia in 1992. He presided over the Sessions in Chicago in 1993 and thereafter served as Parliamentarian until 2009. He gave up the job for 2010 because he wanted to sit in the back row at least once. After moving to Winnipeg in 1993, he transferred his membership to Stonewall Lodge #49 and remained an active member there until moving to Grandview in 2007. He was a big part of the dream, design and construction of Assiniboine Links Phase I and Assiniboine Links Phase II and served as administrator for both. Lloyd was immensely proud to be an Odd Fellow. It's principles and purposes were the guiding force of his life.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

My trip to Kansas City, Missouri for the 2010 Sovereign Grand Lodge Session was a learning experience for me. I had the opportunity to meet members from other jurisdictions and to see friends.

I was appointed to the Committee of Investigations and Grievances, which was null for the Session.

By the time you receive this edition of The Washington OddFellow, I will have attended the receptions for Bethany Bond, President of the Theta Rho Assembly; and Betty Young, Grand Matriarch of the Grand Ladies Encampment Auxiliary.

My reception will be on Saturday, October 9 at the Chimacum IOOF Lodge Hall, located at 11323 Rhody Drive in Port Hadlock. The reception will start at 1 p.m.

REPORTING THE TRUTH

We are to practice Friendship, Love & Truth. Using the principles of Truth, in the September edition, I reported on the Washington State Gambling Commission's investigation into the unaccounted funds of Celesta Rebekah Lodge's Bingo Fund.

I reported the findings of that investigation up to the date of the newspaper. I was not accusing anyone for the unaccounted funds. The Gambling Commission has not accused anyone at this time. They want to complete their investigation before any action will be taken.

DDP MEETING IN BUCKLEY

There will be a District Deputy Grand Masters' meeting held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 16 at the Buckley IOOF #75 Lodge Hall in Buckley. Come and see their hall since their extensive repairs.

Have membership applications ready

Here are some ideas that you might want to try to get new members.

- #1. Have a party, picnic, or barbecue. Invite friends, neighbors, family, etc. Provide food, drinks, games and Odd Fellowship. Give the attendees a good time, information about our Order, and then give them an application.
- #2. Have an open meeting. Invite those same friends, neighbors, family, etc. Provide information about our Order. Have those applications ready!
- #3. How about being in a parade and handing out information about our Order or invitations to a lodge party or gathering. Again, have those applications ready!
- #4. Invite friends, neighbors or relatives to help with a community service project. That is a great way to get people interested in our Order. Show them the other projects of the Order that we are involved in like the Arthritis Foundation, Visual Aid, L.J. Jones Scholarships, SOS Children's Villages, the Home, etc. Have those applications ready!
- #5. Give a friend the Grand Lodge Web Site, www.ioofwa.org. There is a lot of wonderful information to be had such as information about the Order, what we do and what we are about. There is also a link to the Sovereign Grand Lodge web site with more information. Have that application ready!

Those are just a few ideas. I am sure you have others that if you let us know we will be glad to share with others. If you need brochures or applications, please notify either Joyce Miller or myself or contact the Grand Secretary or the Assembly Secretary. We'll all be glad to make sure you have membership tools. And don't forget, have those applications ready!

Ballard-Alki IOOF Lodge #170

As summer slides into fall, Ballard Alki #170 has been continuing its activities.

On August 8, there was a Women's Clothing Swap, in which women brought clothes to swap — and to donate. The event raised funds to cover lodge and building expenses, gave women a chance to exchange clothing — collecting many sacks of clothing to donate — and filled the food donation bin as well.

On September 9, we had the pleasure of initiating two new members, Karen Lindquist and Michael Douglas. We were especially fortunate to have Jean and Genie Coston in attendance, assisting with the degree work.

Looking into the near future, on Saturday, October 30 at the Ballard Odd Fellows Hall, there will be a fund-raising event coordinated by our Vice Grand in conjunction with local Sufi orders, to support schooling in Bangladesh. For more information, contact Vice Grand Rich Osborne at (206) 713-6917.

On the very next day, Sunday, October 31, the Grand Patriarch's reception will be hosted by Ballard Alki #170, in conjunction with Ballard Encampment, the home Encampment of Grand Patriarch Greg Powers. The reception will go from 2 to 4 p.m., followed by a Halloween party from 4 to 6 p.m. Costumes will be greatly appreciated.

“HOWDY” SISTERS & BROTHERS

It doesn't seem possible that a whole month has passed and it is again time to say “howdy” to my Sisters and Brothers.

In August, my driver's license came due. To make a long story short, cataracts said no license for me until they are taken care of. Both have been removed now, but will require a little more healing as one of them was real dense. However, I can already see better, I know that all will be well.

As Representative to International in Kansas City, MO, I must say I enjoyed my time there and hope many more of our Sisters will be given the chance to go and meet with others in our Order.

We passed four bills at International. Each were to use the initials “IARA” in the by-laws instead of the words “International Association of Rebekah Assemblies.” A few days later they said passing those bills could result in the loss of our proper name and we'd be able to only be the “IARA.” Whoever drafted the bills didn't do their homework. Our Representative will have to watch for this at the next Session.

For at least seven years a bill has been presented to elect the Representatives for a two-year term with the option of two more years. I am happy to say that for seven years it has been voted down. We felt that it should eliminate too many Sisters of the opportunity of going, plus taking away the rights of the jurisdictions to make their own decisions. We put forth a referendum to not allow it on the docket for the next five years. We were told that we were out of order and it was voted down. We lost, but at least it is in the minutes. Small victories.

Thanks to Sister Sandi Moon, I was able to attend the reception for Theta Rho President Bethany Bond in Oak Harbor on September 18 and the reception for LEA Grand Matriarch Betty Young on September 19. Both receptions were great and I truly enjoyed them. It goes without ad that they will both do well in their terms of office.

Sandi and I experienced a little rain on our trip — sort of like someone dumping full buckets of water over our heads!

PROJECT CAITY

The Spunky Bluebirds Theta Rho Girls' Club of South Tacoma are beginning “Project Caity.” This is a worthy project to help a member of our Order and her family. We all know that illness can be a real drain in many ways. I hope that all my Sisters and Brothers will help with this project. Prayers, cards, etc. to Caity would all help. I wish you God's blessing on your project, young Sisters. There is an article and a mailing address on page 1 of this newspaper.

Eola Rebekah Lodge #63 - Buckley

Eola Rebekah Lodge #63 had its first meeting following summer recess and members are back in the swing of things.

Noble Grand Kendra Frogge' asked for permission to hold a raffle at our upcoming bazaar to raise funds for her project. Permission was given.

A letter was read from the District Secretary giving us our assignments for the next District #26 Meeting to be held in Orting on Wednesday, October 6. We will practice for that at our next meeting.

An opportunity was presented us to serve a lunch to the Odd Fellows DDGM's at their meeting in October, which we will do.

Our Representative will give a report on the Rebekah Assembly Sessions at our next meeting.

Secretary Karen Hoylman thanked the lodge for nominating her to receive the Meritorious Jewel at our recent Sessions. It was presented to her at the All Branch banquet.

We are happy to have two applications for membership and hope to get those candidates initiated soon.

Happy Halloween, everyone.

DISTRICT MEETINGS ARE THIS MONTH

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The month of October is District Meeting time for many of our districts. I hope you all have a wonderful meeting and enjoy getting together with the other lodges in your district. Best wishes to your District Officers. I know that your meetings will be both educational and fun.

I enjoyed attending the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies Session in Kansas City, Missouri in August. I would like to commend our two Theta Rho Girls who attended the Youth Days this year. Florence Frogge' — Past Theta Rho Assembly President, and Bethany Bond, President of the Theta Rho Assembly. They were truly impressive in the way they handled their assignments and were wonderful representatives from our Theta Rho Girls' Clubs of this Jurisdiction. At the Rebekah Sessions, PP Jennie Reed was appointed to a three year term on the Scholarship Committee. Congratulations, Jennie.

SISTER VICKIE'S PROGRAM

Our new leaders are the Honorable George Glover III, Sovereign Grand Master from the state of Rhode Island, and Vickie Beaver, President of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies from the state of Oregon. I know many of you know Sister Vickie from our Northwest Odd Fellow and Rebekah Association. She attended our Assembly Session in 2009 as the Representative from the IARA. I would like to give some of her program:

- Her Motto: Making Footprints Along The Way
- Watchword: Footprints. “Faith in others for a vision of growth in our Order — Guidance, with time and patience in the Order will evolve methodically.
- Ritual: The guide and teachings for the insight to a better life — Friendships. Need calls us to work together in our communities. Support the programs and projects of the Order
- Aim: To be Secure in the teachings of our Order. To have Patience in the direction our future takes us. To have Faith in our members vision for growth.

I will have more of her program in the next issues of the Washington OddFellow newspaper.

DONATIONS WELL RECEIVED

We should all be proud of our Rebekah Lodges for their donations to the projects of the Order. We received numerous certificates and awards for these donations and all the work that was done for this Order.

THE JOURNAL IS IN PRODUCTION

As I write this article, I am busy editing the Journal. It has been a challenge, to say the least, to get the Journal put together. It will be sent to your lodges as soon as possible. The format and font are both different and I hope that you will approve of the new look.

I leave you with this: “Wishing can be a good thing. It is what keeps hopes and dreams alive and keeps us striving for things that might otherwise be out of our grasp. It gives us the drive to move forward — to reach beyond what is right in front of us. Even dreams that seem unattainable can seem possible with the help of wishing.

IT HAS BEEN A GREAT SUMMER

Dear Friends,

During this past summer I went to the Museum of Flight in Seattle with my Theta Rho Sisters. I had a grand time. While there, a friend and I got stuck in an elevator.

I also had the pleasure of going to Youth Days in Kansas City, MO. I made many new friends. I very much enjoyed my time there and I would like to thank those who made it happen.

This past month I had my reception on the September 18 in Oak Harbor. I had many distinguished guests, including our Grand Master, Grand Matriarch and Rebekah Assembly President. Some other guests that I was honored to have were Jennie Reed, Karen Hoylman, Carson and Judy Inman, John Crispin, Holly Houser, Laurel Delony and Sandy Moon. Sylvia Summers brought up some of the Spunky Bluebirds. It was good to see them.

I spent the night on Camano Island at the Odd Fellows Park before heading to Des Moines in the morning. I had a nice time with my friends. In Des Moines I went to the Grand Matriarch's reception. It was quite enjoyable.

I am looking forward to talking to you next month.

Marching in

Theta Rho Assembly Installing Officers, PP's Holly Houser, Laurel Delony, Loletta McCormick, Sylvia Summers, Patty Olson and Tina Deaty, were presented by Marshal Florence Frogge', Past President of the Theta Rho Assembly of Washington. The event took place during the Theta Rho Assembly Sessions in Yakima last June.

Acorn Theta Rho #79

Well fall is officially here. It is getting close to the time for the ghosts and goblins.

First we would like to thank those who took time from their busy schedules to attend the reception for Theta Rho Assembly President Bethany Bond.

We had three members who moved away over the summer, so at our last meeting we brainstormed a list of people we thought would make good members and are going to ask them to join. We also brainstormed some ideas for things to do for fun after our meetings to make people want to attend. We are hoping this will help us get new members and keep them coming.

We set up some of our community service projects for this fall. First we made a donation to "Feed the Children." There are many young children in our own country who go to bed hungry and we want to continue to help this organization.

We set a date for our raffle, with the money going to provide craft kits for hospitalized veterans for Christmas. We hope that this will be a success to help those who have been wounded and have to spend Christmas in one of the hospitals.

We will be having our annual Halloween Party the end of October with our scavenger hunt for items for our local food bank. This is always a fun project. After the scavenger hunt, we go back to our advisor's house for pizza and sometimes a movie. This is a good time to invite prospective members.

Some of our members will be attending the receptions for the Grand Master and the Grand Patriarch.

We hope all of you have a great Halloween. Until next month. . .

Displaying the quilt made by Loletta McCormick for Grand Matriarch Betty Young are Kendra Frogge' and Betty. Loletta presented the quilt at the Grand Matriarch's reception in Des Moines.

Reception in Des Moines

Grand Matriarch honored at Des Moines reception!!

Approximately 50 people were in attendance in Des Moines for the reception of Grand Matriarch Betty Young. The hall was wonderfully decorated by Genie Coston and her helpers with many kites streaming throughout the room. Kite table favors and utensil holders were on the tables.

After signing in at the guest book manned by Nancy Vriezema, much visiting was going on and then we settled down for the program. Lorraine Mills was at the piano playing the music which added so much to the day. The prayer was offered by Chaplain Judy Sansom. Marshal Kendra Frogge' presented and introduced the guests who were representing the various branches and the Grand Matriarch.

Mistress of Ceremonies Karen Hoylman welcomed the guests and she told everyone about some humorous things that she said they had learned through the years. Betty's song and hymn were played before and after the greetings that were given by the dignitaries.

Kent LEA, of which Betty is a member, swirled around her holding kites which had greenery on the tails, to the tune of "Let's Go Fly A Kite." Then other presentations were made. One was a beautiful quilt by Loletta McCormick which she had made.

A delicious lunch, under the supervision of Holly Houser and Loletta McCormick, was then enjoyed by everyone, with more visiting.

Thank you to everyone who attended and contributed to making this such a wonderful day.

From your 2010-2011 Grand Patriarch

TOLERANCE

As I'm writing this, a Floridian Pastor is still planning to burn Korans on 9/11. As an Odd Fellow I find this repugnant. Our Order stands for mutual respect of all religious beliefs. The lodge room gives us a place where we can meet with mutual respect to help better our communities, free from any other dogma than the Golden Rule. Over my time in Ballard/Alki Lodge, we have had members who were Muslim, Buddhist, Wicken, Druid, Goddess Worshipers as well as the gambit of Christian faiths. Let's rejoice in our differences. Islam is as much of a violent religion as Christianity is. Of course, this hasn't stopped leaders from using the cloak of religion to justify hatred and violence throughout the history of man. Remember, Odd Fellowship was created as a response to the unending religious wars that followed the Reformation. The work of our past Brothers helped lead us to the secular democracy we enjoy today. Celebrate our differences. They make us stronger.

WELCOME HOME TROOPS

With operations winding down In Iraq, many servicemen and women will be returning in the next few months. Welcome them with open arms. While we can debate the wisdom and the reasoning behind the conflict, don't blame the soldiers who answered the call of duty. They have sacrificed much for our country and many have given their all. Our soldiers have been separated for years from family and friends, while leaving their careers in limbo. As a son and nephew of WW II combat vets, I know that many will carry memories of the horrors of war with them for years to come. While parades and pats on the back are always appreciated, an open ear and a shoulder are often needed too. Let's give them our love and patience as they rejoin civilian life. To say thanks, make sure to fly the flag on Veterans' Day.

Yours In Faith, Hope & Charity;
Greg Powers,

Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Washington

Oak Leaf Rebekahs #254 - Oak Harbor

Fall days are with us, but we hope the damp weather doesn't dampen your spirits.

We had some exciting things happen to our lodge members over the summer. First, our Noble Grand Diane Hammond retired. Next our Treasurer Karie Cockrell had a son. We welcome Kedrick as part of our Odd Fellow family. Then a few weeks later, my daughter Carrie Nichols had a son, too. We also welcome Finn. Congratulations to all three of these ladies.

We have a big project that we are working on for our lodge. In November we are having a Christmas tree auction. We have several Christmas trees of varying sizes that we are going to decorate and auction off for a fund-raiser. We we'll also have some craft tables that people have rented to sell their handiwork It will be held on November 19 and 20, so if you don't have anything better to do, take a drive up to beautiful Whidbey Island to our auction.

I personally am going to miss this special event as I will be in Italy visiting my new grandson.

We continue to work on getting new members and our Noble Grand gave everyone membership applications at the last meeting and challenged each one of us to bring in at least one new member.

I can't think of anything else going on up here right now, so I will wish all of you a happy Halloween. Don't let the goblins get you.

Trinity Rebekahs #179 - Napavine

It's back-to-lodge time again. Summer has just flown by.

We are in grief over the loss of our beloved Sister Marilyn Williams. Her service was on August 3 at the First Baptist Church in Chehalis. Our condolences go to her family.

Our coffee stop on August 3-9 was well worth it. The profit was more than we expected. Thank you to everyone who helped.

The Fun Time and Bikers' Breakfast turned out to be a busy time this year. It was nice to see those friendly faces as they stopped by for a hot breakfast.

Debbie Lee's vacation topped it all. She enjoyed a trip to Orlando, Florida for the 2010 Writers' Conference. It was just fantastic and she met an author in person.

Our Rebekah Picnic held on Friday, September 3 was a Hawaiian Luau. Candy and Lee Koons opened their home and backyard for the Hawaiian picnic luncheon. The men enjoyed the bean bag toss. The weather was nice. Those who attended were Sandy Beane, Delia McNelly, Ed and Evelyn Neumann, Alberta Luurs and her granddaughter Josie, and Pat Harader. It was an enjoyable afternoon.

Until next time. . .

News from the Capital City

Olympia IOOF Lodge #1 Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17

Greetings from the Capital City!

Our summer was very short with not many hot days. We are approaching fall and then our long wet winter will arrive.

The Olympia Little Red School House project was a huge success. Our lodge applauds the members and non-members who assisted with this program. Thanks again. The children in our community appreciate all that you have done.

Our annual summer event, the Seafood Extravaganza, was held at the park on August 27. There were more than 200 participants, not including children. We believe this is the biggest, best and most-attended dinner in the history of our beloved lodge.

The lead was taken over by Tom Day. He conducted this dinner with amazing skill and it went very smoothly. The crew Tom assembled worked very well together. Rick and Cathy Garcia were the kitchen coordinators. They kept the line moving and supplied. Randy and Mike were the artists on the grill, doing the salmon to perfection. Joe and Rick were the guys doing the steamed clams which were done to a "T". Ryan and Tom D. were on the BBQ doing the Cajun shrimp. It was tasty and hot. I hope everyone had a taste Don and Neil were the oysters grillers. Their oysters came out extremely good, plump and tender. NG Diane, the Rebekahs and other members furnished salads. We thank them all.

R.D. Richards and Carole Richards deserve a tip of the hat. They, along with Gary and Glen Kitsch, jumped right in and did the dishes, floor and general cleaning, along with P.J. who was in charge of the trash. Thank you. Bob Burnett and Tom Day spent a long time assembling supplies and food. P.J. and I went to Shelton and bought the seafood on ice for the dinner. We thank Laurel Delony for the handling of the monies and sign-in book.

Mary Kitsch is our new Chowder Champ. She beat out six other Chowder Chefs to win. She was our first female member to do so. Way to go, Mary.

A great big thanks to Herb Turner for the fresh fish. He was out on Puget Sound many hours to catch our salmon. Thanks Herb.

To all the members' wives who helped with the games, puzzle and children's activities, thank you for your time and assistance. And thanks to all of our Brothers and Sisters who brought their families and friends to help us in partaking of this great meal. If I forgot any person, I am sorry. Your help was greatly appreciated. Thank you kitchen and clean-up crew for a seafood dinner that will not be forgotten.

For your information, our lodge dues are due by December 31. Next year's dues will be $45.

Our first meeting in October is nominations of officers for 2011. Installation of our new officers will be on January 22 at the lodge hall.

The Cemetery is looking great this summer. It is well-maintained and green. Thanks to the Garcia family, the trash can containers have been pressure washed and painted.

A special thanks to Walt Cook, Glen Kitsch and P.J. Fluesch for maintaining the beauty of our park. I have heard many favorable comments about how nice the park always looks.

The counter tops in the park kitchen are completed. Thank you B.J. Lemon for your assistance and expertise.

South Tacoma Rebekahs #160

We have two proud Sisters. At Assembly Sessions in June, Holly Houser received the Theta Rho Merit Jewel. Holly is the first person to receive this jewel in the Jurisdiction of Washington. The jewel represents a Theta Rho member for lodge and community service worthy of special recognition. Sister Holly was asked to pay tribute to the Theta Rho Banner in Kansas City, Mo. Holly is a Past President of the Theta Rho Assembly of Washington and has always helped with many other projects of our Order. Sisters Holly Houser and Barb Nelson are involved in the Walk-A-Thon for Cancer. We are very proud of you, Holly and Barb.

We are also very proud to announce that another member of our lodge, Sister Laurel Delony, was elected Warden of the Grand Lodge of Washington. We are very proud of our Sister.

Our sweet Hazel Thompson fell and fractured her hip. She had hip surgery and has been in a nursing home recuperating. She is getting better.

Sister Flossie Morey had shoulder surgery and is not doing too well. She now has back problems. It hurts her to lay down, sit and just about everything. She was going to see the doctor about her back on September 25. We wish her well.

Brother Keith Morey is having heart problems. Sister Carol Robertson has been taking her daughter Brenda Moore to the hospital for infusions. Poor Carol has to do this job for 14 days. Carol herself is to have tests done. Sister Clarice Roberts fell and skinned up her knees and she almost broke her wrist. Sister Sharon Harris is not doing well. She has very low blood pressure and has been having infusions.

Sister Barb Nelson broke her toe. We hope she mends fast and will be well for her walk-a-thon.

We wish everyone speedy recoveries.

We hope to see you at the District Meeting.

Super mom!

At the May meeting of the Kent Ladies Encampment Auxiliary #15, Gladys Hughes, seated, was presented as the "Lodge Mother" by Kendra Frogge'.

Salmon Bay Rebekahs #217 - Ballard

"We're all together again..." for a pre-meeting lunch at Louie's. At the meeting, there was a sigh of relief. There were no bills, but a great Assembly Report by our Representative Genie Coston. Everyone was thrilled that the Salmon Bay basket made money for the President's project. It was such fun to assemble and it was hoped it will be done again.

On the other side of the coin, our Charter was draped in honor of 75-year member Betty Lou Anderson. It was moved and passed to send a memorial gift to Wesley Terrace's benefit fund that aids residents who have run out of personal money to fully pay for residency.

Sister June Robinson is working on updating our Bylaws. Expenses are increasing and current dues are not going to cover the newspaper, etc. Salmon Bay, like many other lodges, does not have the physically-energetic membership they had ten years ago for many money raising events. One idea was to have a "no-bake" bake sale where members contribute the money it would have cost to do the real thing. Any other suggestions?

Sister Betty Young was officially welcomed in her new position of Grand Matriarch of the Grand LEA. Salmon Bay is delighted to assist in her reception.

Our Representative Genie Coston and her husband, Brother Jean, specially noted how well President Judy Diekman coordinated the Assembly after a last minute change in leadership.

Monterose Rebekahs #46 - Toledo

Fall is upon us and I see the yellow school bus is out and about again. This means my grandkids are back in school.

Our first meeting of the fall was held on Thursday, September 2. Noble Grand Rosalie Davis read her Assembly Report. Then we enjoyed sack lunches with ice cream for dessert.

It was good to see our Sisters, but we are missing a few. Alice Sandford has moved to a care home in Centralia. The Logan Street Manor is located at 1410 Logan Street. Stop by for a visit. She enjoys company.

Hilma Bowen moved to the Village Inn nursing home on First Street in Castle Rock. Her mailing address is P.O. Box 98, Castle Rock, WA 98611. Hilma is okay, but she is not able to live alone any longer.

We were quite pleased to receive the certificates Rosalie brought home from Assembly. They included awards for Search for Arthritis Cures, the IOOF Higher Education Award and the Community Award.

This makes us feel proud for the efforts that we accomplish for others.

Narcissa Rebekah Lodge #2

We held our first meeting in September at Klicker's Barn with 17 members present.

Those who visited reported on Virginia Braden and Marie Turnbow who are ill. Our prayers are with them and their families. We were happy to hear that Dorothy Gordon and Ruth Phillips are doing better and that Jeannette Oswald just celebrated her 92nd birthday on September 7.

Condolences were read and accepted for Arline Maxson (66-year member) and Rachel Harmon (46-year member). Our sympathies go to their families and, also, to the family of Allene Marti who passed away very recently.

Thank you notes were received from the Odd Fellows Home for our donations in memory of Arline Maxson and Rachel Harmon.

We voted to make a contribution to the educational fund for John Paulson's one-year-old grandson, Dane. This is in memory of John's deceased son, Nate, who was the father of Dane. Those wishing to make a personal donation to Dane's education fund, in memory of Nate, can do so on line at :

Our Noble Grand Elsie Wells reported that she will give a complete report on Assembly at our next meeting. However, she did announce that Narcissa Rebekah basket sold for $500. The winner was Carson Inman, PGM of the Grand Lodge of Washington from Port Hadock.

Following the meeting, we all enjoyed strawberry shortcake served by Rose Ringhoffer and Nancy Klicker.

In Pe Ell

Sylvan Glen Rebekah Lodge #184

Good news! Louise Lusk is back home. Minnie Epling is back in Pe Ell staying with a grandson. Luellyn Ainsworth is on the mend after heart attack surgery, and our Noble Grand Carolyn Turner and her husband Paul are doing better. Hopefully everyone else will stay well.

Our scholarship was given to Shelby Jensen. She plans on working while studying to become a registered nurse. Our best to her.

We will be celebrating Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas. We hope you will join us.

The whole town of Pe Ell has rallied around Luellyn, offering her everything from transportation to running errands, etc. All she has to do is say, "I need help" and help is there. What wonderful friends!
