Members of Spunky Bluebirds Theta Rho Girls' Club #93 of South Tacoma were in great spirits as they awaited their flight from SeaTac to Dallas, Texas on August 13. Yee haw, Texas style!

Six Spunky Girls plunge deep in the heart of Texas

In August, six members of Spunky Bluebirds Theta Rho Girls' Club had a golden opportunity to join Theta Rho Assembly President Faith Ghramm at the SGL- IARA Youth Days in Fort Worth, Texas. This good fortune was made possible by several amazingly fortunate coincidences, as well as the wonderful support of our South Tacoma and Olympia Odd Fellows Lodges. Big thanks to all who helped provide the girls with this exciting and memorable experience.

Six Jurisdictions (Washington, Oregon, California, Colorado, Michigan, and Texas) and 51 kids were in attendance at Youth Days. At the orientation meeting on Friday, youth and advisors' discussions were held. It was great to have the chance to discuss questions and concerns and get to know each other better.

INTRODUCING YOUR NEW GRAND OFFICERS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to start off my first letter as your Grand Master by thanking the Jurisdiction of Washington for the second opportunity to hold this office. I also want to thank the following Brothers and Sisters for accepting an office and I also want you to know who your elective and appointive officers are.

- If you need anything please let us know. We are here to work for you.

A CHALLENGE FOR YOU

Now, with that being said I am going to “challenge” you this year. Every month I am going to give you a challenge. I want you to challenge your lodge. I want you to challenge other lodges. I want you to challenge your members. I want you to challenge yourself. And what I mean by “challenge” is to pick one thing, one simple thing to accomplish for the Order. Now that could be getting one new member. It could be opening the doors to your lodge and having an open house. It could be contacting your local schools and see what they desperately need. It doesn’t have to cost you anything; it could be just mentoring a student. It could be a community project, like weeding a garden or cleaning up a road, donating to a food bank, or helping to cook a meal for the homeless. The opportunities are endless, but you have to take the “challenge” and I know that you and I can do this.

MY RECEPTION

My reception this year will be held on Saturday, September 26 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Portland Avenue Community Center, 3513 East Portland Ave. Tacoma, WA 98404. This year the receptions will be for all of the heads of the Order:

- Laurel Delony, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Washington.
- Faith Ghramm, President of the Theta Rho Assembly of Washington.
- Barb Nelson, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Washington.
- Frank Wilson, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Washington.
- Donna Tonn, Grand Matriarch of the Grand Ladies Encampment Auxiliary of Washington.

The heads will be providing sandwiches and we ask everyone to please bring a salad or potluck dish. This will be one reception so you only have to take out one weekend. We should have a lot of fun. We hope to see you there.

“LUNCH & LEARNS” TO RETURN

On October 24 at the Olympia IOOF Hall, there will be a District Deputy Grand Masters’ meeting. During this meeting we’ll be discussing the duties of the DDGM’s and then there will be a “Lunch and Learn” right after. I am all about teaching, so please, if you can make it, come to the meeting and please let me know if you will be attending as we’ll need a head count for lunch. I’ll be scheduling more “Lunch and Learn” sessions during the year, so if you can’t make it, be on the lookout for other times and places.

My pins are in and available for $3 each. Proceeds go to my project.

MY PROGRAM

- Colors: Red, Black and Silver
 - Flowers: Wild Flowers
 - Emblem: Smiley Face
 - Songs: “Amazing Grace” and “In The Mood”
 - Motto: “Step up to the ‘Challenge’” and “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.”
 - Scripture: James 1:2-4: “Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.”
 - Project: In conjunction with the Rebekah Assembly President and the Grand Patriarch: “Junior Achievement”
- Okay, I’ve gone over my word limit and our editor is going to cut me off so until next month,

Step up to the “challenge!”

ON TO SOVEREIGN

Brothers and Sisters,

As I write this month's article, several Grand Lodge Officers were attending the 2015 Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions which were held on Monday August 17 through Friday afternoon on August 25 in Fort Worth, Texas.

Washington's Grand Lodge Sessions in Yakima were productive and harmonious again this year. We welcomed Brother Danny Wood, Deputy Sovereign Grand Master, and his lovely wife, Lana. They hail from the Jurisdiction of Texas. Brother Danny was our Jurisdictions Representative from the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

GROUP IRS RETURNS

HARRY W. "BILL" COULTER This year we were sent something new from Sovereign Grand Lodge. The IRS has approved for The Sovereign Grand Lodge IOOF to file a group return, which will allow those units that have lost their group exemption to be reinstated by being part of the group return. Even those units that are currently in good standing may be part of the group return. Each Lodge, Encampment, and Ladies Encampment were mailed a form to be signed and returned to the Grand Lodge office for your unit to be included in the group return. Please ensure that these forms are signed and returned by Tuesday, September 15.

- Patricia Grigg, 23 year member, Narcissa Rebekah Lodge #2, Walla Walla.
- Dorothy McGee, PNG, 60 year member, Mytic Rebekah Lodge #168, Bremerton. Last member of Jewel Rebekah Lodge #227.

I hope all of you have had an enjoyable summer season. Now it is time for you to return to our lodge halls to carry on with the work of our Order.

From your Wardens

Let's work on retaining our 'forgotten' members

As your newly-elected Wardens, Kelly Hughes and Cathy Garcia, we would like to thank you for the honor of serving you in these positions. We both have a lot to learn and are excited about the opportunities ahead of us.

One of the responsibilities of this office is encouraging local lodges with ideas to attract new members. At a time when membership is dropping in most all Fraternal and Social organizations, this is indeed an important priority if our lodges are to remain active, vital elements of our communities. We have committed to meet together regularly and brainstorm possible ideas to help us all reach out to our communities and stay visible.

As important as growing with new members is the fact we all have members on our books who no one has seen for many months (or longer). These are Brothers and Sisters who, at one time, were excited about joining our lodges. The hectic schedule of life in general has gotten in the way for many of them.

A great place to start this fall might be for each one of us to commit to one of these "forgotten" members and call them a couple times a month, just to see how they are doing, and let them know they are missed. If each of us were successful in bringing one member back to regular attendance, our meeting size would double. Give it a try.

THANK YOU REBEKAH LODGES

I wanted to start my first article off by saying thank you to all the Rebekah Lodges for putting your faith in me over last couple of years as I continue to move through the offices of the Rebekah Assembly. It has been a pleasure to meet and learn about our great Order. I look forward to visiting all the lodges and meeting the members. As I look to the coming weeks of busy travel and learning many things I hope to do my very best to represent Rebekah Assembly of Washington.

BARBARA NELSON

In many ways the month of September brings many things. Trees start to lose their leaves, days get shorter, and summer vacation is over. But for our Order we head back to lodge to accomplish good things in our communities.

ONE RECEPTION

Usually the month of September is full with going to all the officers' receptions. This year, however, you have one reception to attend for all five branches. Now that is cooperation! So please join us for the joint reception on Saturday, September 26 for all five branches of the Order being held at the Portland Avenue Community Center in Tacoma.

MY PROGRAM

Along with getting back to lodge I want to let you know about my program for this year. The charity I am working with is Junior Achievement of Washington. Since the youth is our future, it is worthwhile to make sure they are receiving a good financial education. Junior Achievement of Washington educates kids from K-12th grade in financial responsibility for themselves and gives them an understanding of business financials. My emblem is the dragonfly. My flower is the Gerber daisy. My scripture is Hebrews 11:1: "Faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see."

VISITATION SCHEDULE

I am starting my September very busy with visitations. Here is the list for September. I hope to see you all at a lodge or two.

- September 3: South Tacoma #160
- September 10: Trinity #179
- September 15: Mystic #168
- September 16: Fall City #59 & Oak Leaf #254
- September 21: Odessa #337
- September 22: Columbian #220
- September 23: Ruth #17

Remember to watch for the kids as they go back to school. Be kind to others and they will be kind in return.

*Coach members. . . And they will learn,
Challenge members. . . And they will grow,
Believe in our lodges. . . And we will succeed.*

In Napavine

Trinity Rebekahs #179

Hello from Trinity. Goodness, where did our summer go?

We have a new Sister who has joined Trinity. She is Erma Strom. She was born in Toledo and grew up there. She joined our lodge on May 27, so it is now official.

A thank you to members of Olympia IOOF Lodge #1 for hosting the ceremony and to Lena Swetz and her Initiation Team. Also, a big thank you to LouAnn Hoffman who was in charge of the car pool.

Our community garage sale was held on July 17-19. It was a three-day event during the "Fun Time Days" in Napavine. We served breakfast, lunch and breakfast again on Sunday morning for the classic car show crowd. It was a busy time, but working together as a team really helps. I also understand we took in a good profit. Great!!

When all the work was done, Cookie was ready for a vacation. Along with hubby Jim, we travelled to Rockaway Beach where there is a beautiful view of the ocean. We love it there.

Cookie and Alberta Luurs also travelled to the Sessions in Yakima. We had a very good time. Cookie gave a report at our June 25 meeting. Alberta will add to it in the fall.

A VERY BUSY SUMMER

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

I have had a busy Summer and I hope things slow down a little so I can catch up.

MARCIA PRESLEY

INTRODUCING OUR NEW OFFICERS

Our Rebekah Assembly Sessions went well, thanks to our Assembly President Maggie Truttmann. Those who were able to attend were glad they were there. We have a new slate of Assembly Officers for the next year. Our Assembly President is Barbara Nelson; Assembly Vice President is Kathi Picanco; our newly-elected Assembly Warden is Cathi Garcia; and our newly-elected Assembly Treasurer Judy Diekman, P.P.

THANKS TO YVONNE

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our retiring Treasurer Yvonne Haugeto for all her diligent work as our Treasurer for the last 15 years (2000-2015). The Rebekah Assembly voted to award Yvonne the Treasurer Emeritus Jewel. The numerous phone calls to and from her will be missed, but they will not stop just because she is no longer our Treasurer.

IRS FILING

Each Rebekah lodge should have received a letter from the Sovereign Grand Lodge on our non-profit e-postcard filing that needs to be done each year to the IRS. The Sovereign Grand Lodge will be filing this report for all of the Rebekah Lodges in the Jurisdiction, and those that have had some problems with their filing will be reinstated.

Thank you to all the Secretaries who have signed the lodge report they received and returned them to me by the September 15, 2015 deadline date. If I have not received all of the reports back from the Rebekah Lodges, those that did not return them to me, will have to deal with the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS

I would like to remind the line officers and all of the committee chairmen that want to have a supplemental report in the Journal of Proceedings of the 2015 Rebekah Assembly Sessions, that you need to get them to me as soon as you can so that I can include them in the Journal before it goes to be printed.

PORK CHOP BARBECUE CANCELLED

Because of the lack of interest from our membership, the Pork Chop Barbecue and the Ice Cream Social at the IOOF Recreational Park on Camano Island were both canceled.

We will be having a work party prior to our next Park Board Meeting to get started on a trail to the lake. We need to get the word out about our beautiful park. Some of our members don't know anything about it.

Worrying is like a rocking chair, it gives you something to do, but you don't get anywhere.

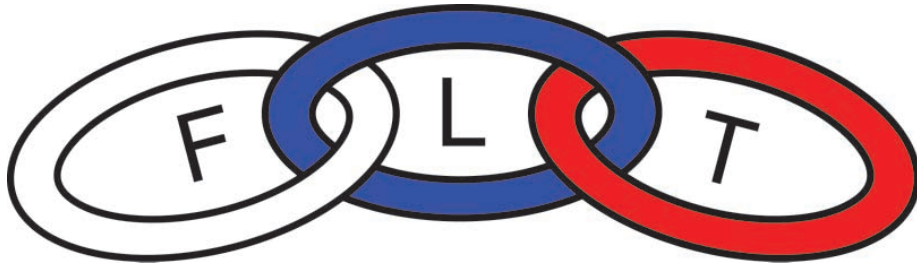

— *With lots of Rebekah Hugs,
In Friendship, Love and Truth*

C.W. Gillespie

Do any of you know of this Grand Patriarch?

I came across a medal/ribbon recently at a local antique shop. This item has a photograph of C.W. Gillespie who was the Grand Patriarch of the 42nd Annual Sessions of the Grand Encampment of Washington in Wenatchee in June of 1925.

I called the Grand Lodge in Buckley and it was suggested that I send you this information in hopes that you could place this in your June, 2015 newsletter. The gentleman that I spoke to at the Grand Lodge was able to verify that C.W. Gillespie was the Grand Patriarch in 1924-1925.

I would very much like to find a living descendant of C.W. Gillespie and perhaps there may be a current or recent past member of the IOOF who would be related to Mr. Gillespie. It could be that a member may know of this family and would let them know about this artifact.

If you have any further questions about this, please let me know. I hope that you will have room in your next IOOF publication for this article and photograph.

— Sincerely, Art Kelly, Richland, WA.

(Editor's note: If any of our readers have information about Mr. Gillespie, please contact Grand Secretary Harry Coulter in the Grand Lodge of Washington Office in Buckley.)

I hope that some of you were able to attend the celebration of Olympia Lodge 160th anniversary and sea food meal at their park.

News from the Capital City

Olympia IOOF Lodge #1 Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17

Is summer over already? I don't know about you, but I haven't finished all my projects for this summer yet? I always think these few months will be quiet on the lodge front and I can get "caught up." It never seems to happen that way, though.

While Ruth was dark for July and August, most of us kept in touch with each other and talked about things we hope to accomplish this coming year. Several of us were able to attend the picnic that Kapowsin Lodge hosted. We had a wonderful time.

Members of both Olympia IOOF Lodge #1 and Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17 stayed busy with the Little Red School House project. Members washed another 200 coats that were picked up from lost and found at local schools, collected socks and underwear, and braved a rain storm while standing on the street corner with other School House volunteers to collect money for school supplies. Then came the big day! A record number of students went through the line to receive a warm coat and a back pack filled with school supplies, as well as new socks and underwear to start the school year off strong.

Thank you to all the members who showed up at 6:30 a.m. to help park cars and those who came throughout the day to distribute items and help put everything away at the end of a very busy day.

We ended the summer with our annual Seafood Dinner. It was wonderful!!! I think the clam chowder gets better every year. We combined this year's dinner with a celebration commemorating our 160th anniversary. I know this wasn't what was originally planned or what was mentioned in the last newsletter, but it is the way it worked out. Many of you were there to honor our lodge and we appreciated seeing you.

At this year's event we also honored Robert Barney Wagner with the first of what we hope to be an annual "Humanitarian Award." Kathi Picanco did some research and discovered Mr. Wagner's many contributions to people in need in our community.

And now it's time to jump into fall and this season's activities. Ruth #17 will reconvene on Wednesday, September 9 with a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. prior to our meeting. Our Assembly President will be joining us on Wednesday, September 23 for her official visit. We have some exciting plans to encourage attendance, increase membership and build our bank account in the coming months.

Olympia Odd Fellows will again be holding a Degree Day in October, so be planning ahead for new members to join us and received all four degrees in one fun day. Lunch is always provided.

We're looking forward to a great fall and we hope you are, too!

Springfest in White Salmon

Goodwill IOOF Lodge #188 has enjoyed helping the community of White Salmon during the city's Springfest by monitoring parade setup and then being the last entry in the parade to pickup the orange cones from the parade site. This enable the local authorities to open the road to traffic. Goodwill Lodge also had a booth set up during the festivities to show our support to the community. We are Odd Fellows and the shirts do not let us go unnoticed. Manning the booth are Henry Balsiger, John Childs and Tom Smith. Springfest was held on the last weekend of May.

Grand send-off

Faith Ghramm and Spunky Bluebirds Advisor Sylvia Summers were having great time at the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth send-off dinner in July. Faith was one of four students from Washington who participated in the annual tour. Faith was sponsored by Ruth Rebekah Lodge #17 in Olympia. Other Washington participants and their sponsoring lodges were: Felicia Lozinski and Surabhi Mundada, sponsored by Olympia IOOF Lodge #1, and Alexis Sager, sponsored by Vancouver IOOF Lodge #3.

Visitor from Norway

Seated, from left, are Nora Carria, Sandy Shepherd, Dale Kellogg and Greg Powers.

Several Rebekah members, along with residents and staff of the Odd Fellows Home in Walla Walla, enjoyed a beautiful afternoon at the dedication of Narcissa's plaque marking the lodge's 130th anniversary on May 19.

Narcissa Rebekahs #2

The weather has finally cooled down to seasonal normal temperatures after a lot of really hot weather. It is a welcome relief.

On May 19 we dedicated the bronze plaque that Narcissa commissioned to commemorate our 130th anniversary. It was installed in front of the brick building at the Odd Fellows Home here in Walla Walla.

Speakers for the occasion were Shirley Ruble; Barbara Tvrz; NG Patty Newell; and John Brigham, Director of the Odd Fellows Home. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Nancy Klicker, a prayer was given by Chaplin Robertta Hunt, and the dedication was led by Patty Newell. We all enjoyed refreshments and visiting. It was a moving ceremony on a beautiful sunny afternoon.

Our last meeting before going dark was a potluck picnic held at the Clinton Street Courtyard. We always enjoy seeing each other one last time before summer. We were pleased to have Neita Sterns and Cora May Davis from Schuyler join us.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, ELSIE

Several of us attended Sister Elsie Wells' 90th birthday party hosted by her family. Elsie was queen for the day and enjoyed visiting with her large extended family. There was a lovely buffet and a delicious cake. Happy birthday, Elsie, and many more.

Sadly I must report the unexpected passing of our dear Sister Patricia Grigg. Pat was one of the sweetest people that I knew and will be greatly missed. She was a 23 year member of Narcissa.

We hope that everyone's summer went well. See you in September.

Six Spunky Bluebirds whoop it up in Texas!

Later that day and evening we were treated to dinner at the Stockyards, followed by a rip-roaring night at the rodeo. On Saturday morning each jurisdiction presented a report on what they were doing in their clubs/lodges.

After lunch an interesting unplanned activity occurred when the “Molly Trolley” we were riding was involved in an accident. We all got tossed around a bit and Christina and Sylvia got to take an extra tour of the local emergency room. No permanent damage was done as they were just a bit sore, and we still made it back in time to attend the banquet and watch all the great talent and amusing skits. The night was capped off with a very lively pool party.

It was a busy and fun three days and such great fun to meet other Theta Rho Girls and Junior Odd Fellows. We are looking forward to next year in South Dakota.

Grand Lodge wins wins S.G.L. appeal

At the 2015 Sovereign Grand Communication in Fort Worth, Texas, the Committee on Appeals and Petitions reviewed the matter of Lisa Ghramm, and others vs. the Grand Lodge of Washington. The Grand Representatives of the Jurisdiction of Washington responded to the charges and allegations presented in the appeal, and addressed questions of procedures within the SGL Code and Washington Digest to the Representatives on the committee.

The Committee’s findings were that the actions taken in the Expulsion of the Charters of South Tacoma Lodge #211, and Buckley Lodge #75 by the Grand Master were in following with due process of enforcing necessary corrective actions on many individuals. Furthermore, the Committee upheld the method of handling the matters subsequently reviewed by the Grand Lodge Executive Committee, and the full Grand Lodge while in sessions. Sovereign Grand Lodge approved the findings of the Appeals and Petitions committee in a unanimous vote of 114-0. This concludes the appeals process for the members of the Odd Fellows Motorcycle Club who have been expelled for cause with their respective Lodge Charters.
